

Conservation Ecology: Challenges & Opportunities

Beatrice Cyiza

Beatrice CYIZA is the Director General, Environment and Climate Change at the Ministry of Environment, overseeing the development and dissemination of legal instruments, strategies and programs related to environment protection, climate change and pollution control.

Before joining the Ministry of Environment, she worked at RICA as the Administrative Coordinator for Academic Affairs, Extension and Applied Research.

Beatrice holds a master's degree in Biodiversity Conservation from the University of Rwanda and a bachelor's degree in Biology, Chemistry with Education.

Friday

July 29

2:00 - 3:30 p.m. (CAT)

Extension Lecture Hall

Beatrice Cyiza,

Director General, Environment &
Climate Change

Ministry of Environment